(OVER)

Note: Due to federal regulations, we must provide you this information during the application, loan approval, and loan consummation stages.

About the repayment example: The repayment example above is based on the best estimate currently available. It assumes in the first example that the borrower remains in school for 3 years and has a 1 year grace period before beginning payment. The second example reflects non-fulfillment of service obligation.

Bankruptcy Limitations. If you file for bankruptcy you may still be required to pay back this loan.

Forbearance period: Payments are not required, but can be made without penalty, during this time.

Other loan options: Find out more about other loan options by contacting your school's financial aid office or the Department of Education at federalstudentaid.ed.gov. Should your WICHE support fee put you over the maximum student aid allowed, this amount may be subtracted from any federal support you may receive. Some schools have school-specific student aid terms not detailed on this form. Contact your financial aid office for more information regarding how your WICHE support will be allocated.

Prepayment: There is no prepayment penalty for early payoff. However, you will be required to pay the outstanding accrued interest through the payoff date.

The terms of the loan offer are good for 30 days. You have 30 days from the approval date to accept the lending offer during which the terms will not change. Further, you will have a 3-day right to cancel the loan.

Contracts may offer additional terms and conditions.

I HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIPT OF THE LOAN DISCLOSURE STATEMENT.
